UTA Fine Arts Debuts "I'm Just Like You," Nicholas Kontaxis

Nicholas Kontaxis will make his artistic debut in NYC. He spent the first three years of his life at HCHC while his father Dr. Dcn Euthym Kontaxis attended seminary. Nicholas was diagnosed with a brain tumor at 15 months old and has thousands of seizures in his lifetime. His mother Diakonissa Krisann has shepherded his career as an artist, overcoming multiple obstacles, all while giving all glory to God. Nicholas' love of the church and his commitment to Christ is reflected in the optimism of his work.

All are invited to attend.
